Artist is...

CYun was born and raised in Seoul, South Korea during a time of strong monoethnic consciousness. She later moved to the United States and became a U.S. citizen, where she witnessed many cultural exchanges. Now that she's back in Korea, she feels that there is a free exchange of diverse cultural sentiments and content in Korea, and she expresses this new atmosphere through TOBBA. Through her experiences in both Korea and the US, she has met a variety of people and been exposed to their unique cultures, races, and religions, and has been inspired by the motif of diversity in her daily life.

CYun currently works as an artist, exhibition organizer, and gallery owner. Having lived and worked in various areas, the artist became deeply interested in diversity and created 'TOBBA' through her numerous experiences. CYun has a rich relationship with artists, as well as with the legal and medical communities, and through her work, she acknowledges that the world is made up of such diverse people.

Starting with acrylic paintings, the artist expresses "TOBBA" through a variety of contents, including FRP steel, air or wood sculptures, videos, and books. 'TOBBA' is not defined as a single category, but appears in a complex form. An artist never settles in one place and is constantly changing. Similarly, 'TOBBA' is constantly evolving. The continuous accumulation of experiences has a direct impact on the work. In the future, the artist will continue to pursue 'newness' through material research and directional exploration, creatively expanding her artistic realm.

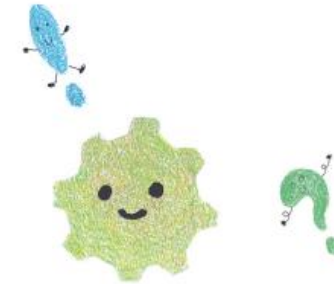

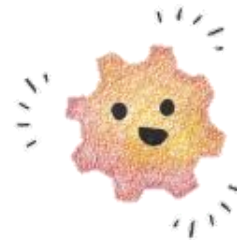

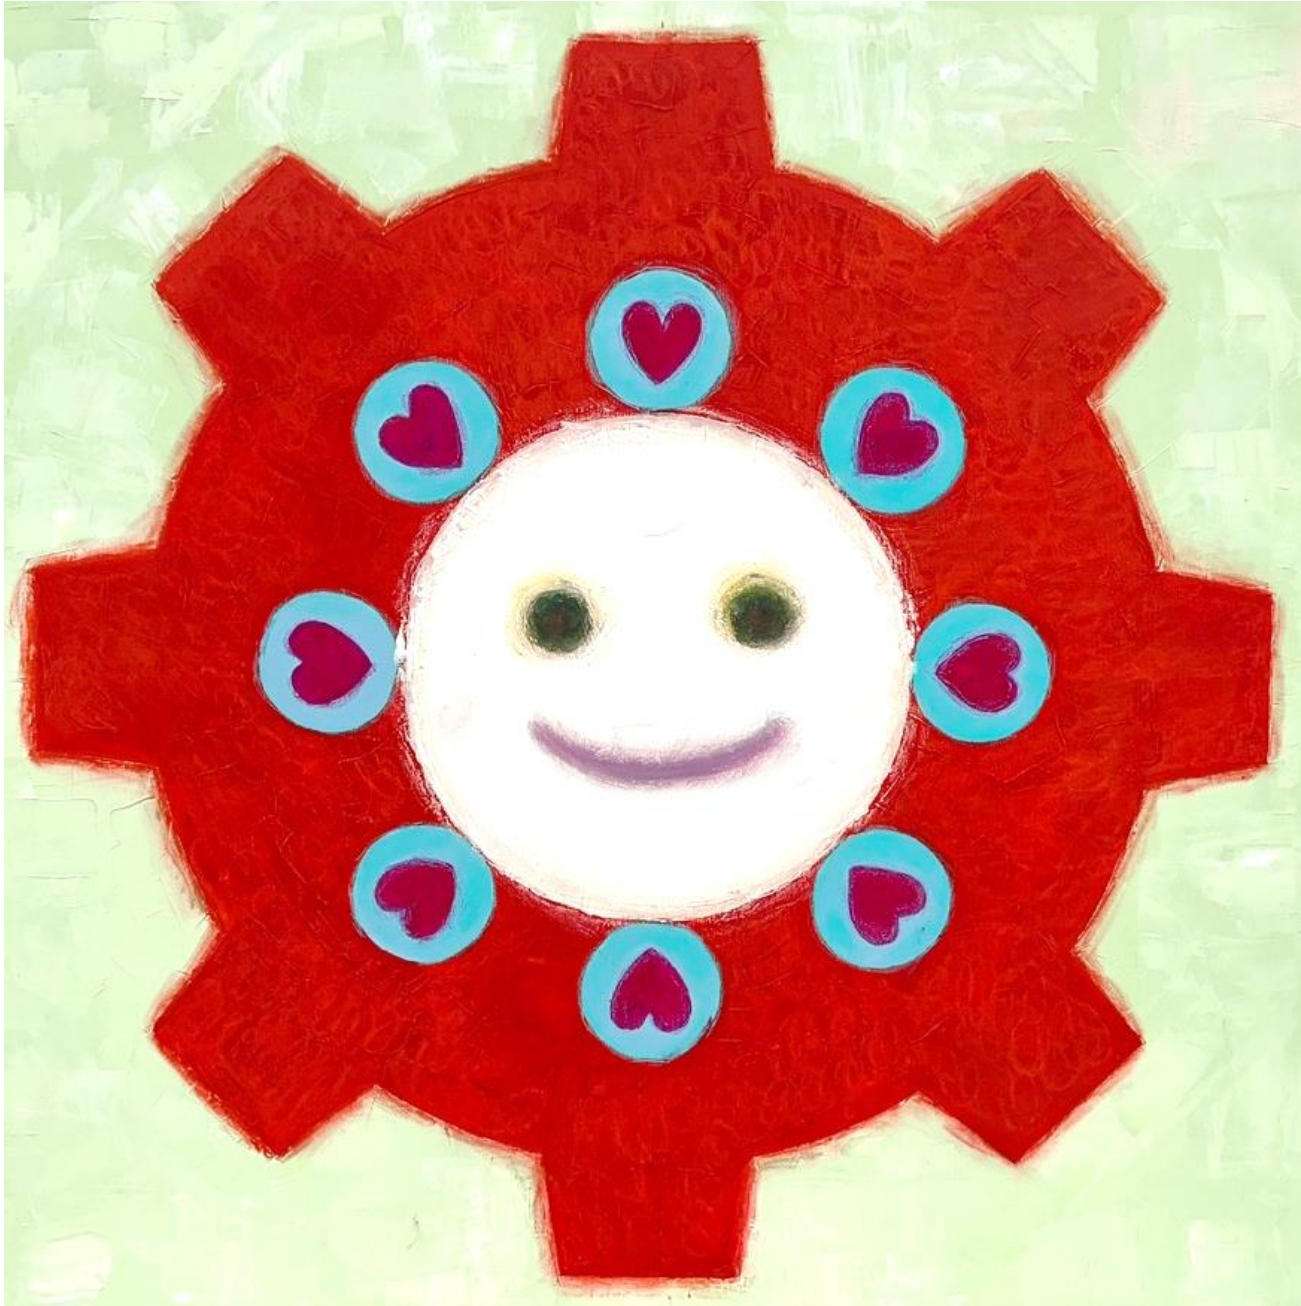

About 'TOBBA'

TOBBA tells a story of diverse identities coexisting harmoniously and exchanging positive energy through the special character in mobile phone we use every day.

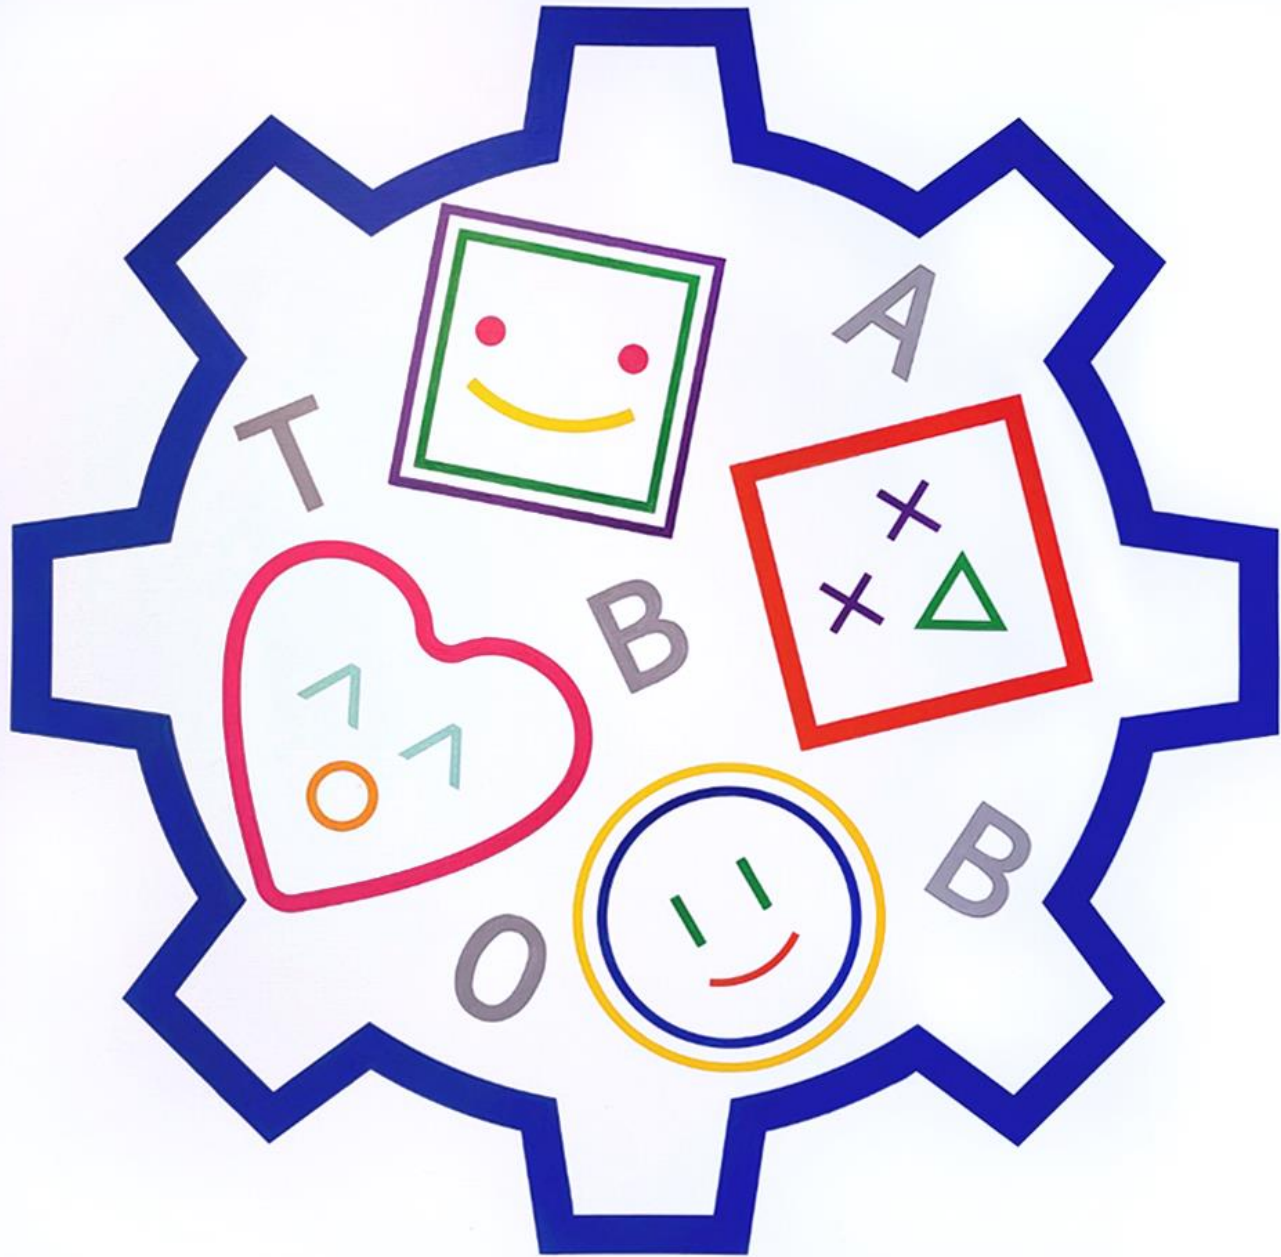

The symbols on TOBBA's face are a common language for people around the world to communicate their feelings on their phones, and TOBBA represents a wide range of emotions.

Through TOBBA, the artist imagines a 'TOBBA world' where everyone is a valued member, no matter how big or small their role, and where TOBBA brings happiness, hope, and healing

토바 월드는 ...

남과 다르다고 소외되거나 비교되는 대상이 아닌
자신만의 고유한 가치가 있는 세상에 하나뿐인 나로서
주변과 소통하고 어울리며 긍정적인 에너지를
서로에게 전달하며 살아가는
우리의 모습이며 살아가는 세상이다.
